

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

An organized mental health program or service offered by employers to employees and/or families. They are usually brief, face-to-face, interventions facilitated by professional counselors. Typical problems include alcohol/drug abuse, divorce recovery, work-related conflicts, financial difficulties, and parenting.